U. S. WILL AWAIT KAISER'S REPLY

State Department Silent on Killing of Americans.

Secretary of State Lansing announced yesterday that the State Department would neither ask nor comment on the cases of the Marina and Rowanmore, British ships supposedly sunk by German submarines, until the German government has had an opportunity to investigate the incidents.

A reasonable time will be given Germany after the investigation being conducted by this government has been completed, to reply to the State Department's request for information concerning the attacks. Lansing indicated that it might be necessary for the submarine commanders to return to their bases before Germany can furnish the information sought.

Statements Are Issued.

Both Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, authorized statements yesterday which were designed to remove any misapprehension which might exist regarding new policies of either government.

Count von Bernstorff said: "I have asked for information from my government because I have considered every report and am absolutely impartial on account of the German pledges and also on account of the fact that I do not believe anybody at 4 o'clock in the morning could see a torpedo looking like a white fish.

"The German government has given its promise, and the German government has always kept its promises."

Mr. Lansing said:

"I have no news that I can give out in regard to the Marina and the other vessels, in which we are interested, but I feel that I ought to say this, and you may quote me if you wish:

No Change in Policy.

"The fact that a political campaign is in progress will in no way vary the practice of the department in regard to making a full investigation of cases of this sort. We shall do it as we always have, and with as much celerity as is possible.

"And I would just as soon say another thing.

"The question has been raised as to whether the department has changed its policy on the part of the President or the department in regard to submarine warfare since the Sussex, and I wish to say emphatically that there has been no change in any particular.

The policy referred to by Secretary Lansing was that declared in the several notes of the United States to Germany on the subject of submarine warfare, in which it was declared that warning must be given and provision made for the safety of passengers and crews before a merchant ship is sunk.

The fact that the Marina carried a 12-inch gun, and is believed to have been previously in the admiralty service, may affect materially the decision of this government.

GOMPERS SARCASTIC IN ATTACKING TAFT

Refers to Former President as "Father of Injunction."

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, issued a statement yesterday, saying:

"It has just been brought to my attention that Injunction Judge Taft, in his effort to apologize for Candidate Hughes' decision in the Danbury haters' case, makes an attack upon me.

"Father of Injunction Taft must have known that he spoke untruthfully of me and my connection with the Danbury haters' case. For the records of the case will show that under oath I testified I did not know that the American Federation of Labor or any of its officers were advised or knew that the haters were engaged in any conspiracy with Lowe, the Danbury hat manufacturer."

The statement reviews the Danbury haters' case, denies Mr. Taft's charge that the haters acted upon Gompers' advice, and concludes:

"I am perfectly willing that the working people and the liberty-loving citizenship shall determine as to who is the safest and the most sympathetic adviser of our country—Mr. Taft or I."

GEORGIANS ARREST 150 NEGROES

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 1.—One hundred and fifty negroes were surrounded by police reserves at the Union Station and arrested here today as they were about to depart for the North. It is alleged they were to be used by Republicans in Tuesday's election. The arrests, which were made under a city ordinance recently passed, created a near riot.

PARIS FEARS AIR RAID

Paris, Nov. 1.—That the military authorities fear a German air raid over Paris such as the Germans have been making over London is indicated by special precautions that are being taken. Instructions were issued to residents of the city and all were warned to abide strictly by these regulations when an alarm is given.

SENATOR BORAH SERIOUSLY ILL

Fon Du Lac, Wis., Nov. 1.—United States Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, is fighting pneumonia here as a result of exposure to a blizzard in a recent speaking trip in Montana. He has canceled all his speaking dates.

CASH DEFLECTS BULLET

Tamques, Pa., Nov. 1.—While Daniel Wagner, a wealthy farmer of Tumblering Run Valley, was on his way home from market at a late hour he was held up in a lonely part of the road by a masked man nearly six feet tall, who stepped in front of the team and at the point of a revolver asked Wagner to get off the wagon.

Wagner refused, and the fellow fired. The bullet struck Wagner near the heart, but his wallet, containing $40, deflected the bullet.

U-BOAT HALTS RESCUERS

London, Nov. 1.—The German submarine that sank the Greek steamer Angelika prevented another ship from going to the rescue of the crew and passengers, says a dispatch to the Chronicle from Athens today. The submarine, this dispatch states, threatened to torpedo the vessel if it approached the sinking Greek ship. The number 6 dead in the destruction of the Angelika is now put at fifty.

GERMANS HEALTHIER

New York, Nov. 1.—"Stomach trouble is now unknown in Germany," said George E. Eager, eleven years American consul at Barmen, Germany, who returned yesterday on the Noordam, on a two-week leave of absence. "Since the German has had to save food so carefully he no longer overeats. Most Germans have lost between fifteen and twenty pounds, and the whole nation is in far better health than before the war. Germany lacks only fats and wools."

JURIST'S BULLDOG SWALLOWS LETTER WRITTEN BY PRESIDENT

Chicago, Nov. 1.—If President Wilson still wants United States Judge Kenesaw M. Landis here to know what a letter written him from the White House contained he will comply with the judge's request and send a copy. For John, the judge's dog, ate the original before the judge had a chance to read it.

Incidentally, John is suffering exceedingly today. He had munched an old golf ball he was playing with and it exploded, its acid core setting him aflame internally. It was while he was wrecking the judge's study in his mad fight about the room that John swallowed the letter which had just arrived and tore it to shreds.

"SUB" MAIL SOON

U. S. Agrees on Price with Deutschland Owners.

The Deutschland will probably carry United States mails on her return trip to Germany. This government has signified its willingness to the German embassy for the merchant submarine to transport American mails and an agreement has been reached on rates, it was learned yesterday.

Negotiations between the State Department and the German embassy were begun about three weeks ago, when the Bremen was thought to be about due, bringing the mail to Germany. Count von Bernstorff acted in behalf of the liners. They asked a high price at first, which this government turned down on the ground that a rate higher than the law authorized could not be allowed. It was also agreed that the submarine should carry no merchandise in the mails.

The German representatives agreed to the rate offered, but then desired that this government make special allowances for the mails the submarine was to carry. The State Department would not agree to this, stating that only the usual equipment for ocean transportation would be furnished.

Since that time the subject has not been mentioned by Secretary Lansing and the German Ambassador, but it is expected to be revived before the Deutschland sails, so that vessel may carry American mails to Germany.

HUGHESSETTES "EGGED" BY CROWD IN CHICAGO

Mounted Policemen Called to Clear the Way for Campaigners.

(By The International News Service.) Chicago, Nov. 1.—Requiring the services of mounted policemen to clear a way through the crowd that gathered outside the Woman's Hughes Party here today, twenty members of the Woman's Hughes Party were jeered, jostled and finally egged as they departed after addressing an audience that taxed the capacity of the theater.

Cheers and shouts for Wilson from hecklers stationed in all parts of the theater greeted the speeches. The women on the stage accepted the disagreeable situation good naturedly, however, and their sportsmanlike conduct throughout the experience earned them a round of genuine cheers, as they departed on their special from the La Salle street station.

As the women left the "egged" took place. The eggs were badly aimed, however, and none struck any of the women. The Hughesettes tranquilly ignored the missiles and were driven rapidly away by mounted policemen charged the crowd.

FIERY COAT A LIFE SIGNAL

Chester, Pa., Nov. 1.—When his gasoline launch Relief, twenty-eight feet long, struck a submerged barge in the Delaware River, off the mouth of Chester Creek, Monday night, Capt. Charles Wagner, of the old Delmar, narrowly escaped being drowned.

Taking off his coat, he saturated it with gasoline, tied it to an oar and set fire to it. Several men in a boat-house at the foot of Edgmont avenue were attracted by the blazing signal and put out in a boat to the stranded mariner's rescue.

DEATH MYSTERY UNEARTHED

Redden, Del., Nov. 1.—Digging up a human skeleton with the skull deeply dented, workers on the Du Pont Boulevard believe that they have uncovered a murder mystery. The skeleton was found on the old Denoveland land, now owned by George Moser, of Lester, Pa., when the boulevard builders were cutting through a hill to make the grade for the new road. The entire skeleton was uncovered without any wooden box around it, plainly showing that it had been buried without the usual rites.

$50,000 WILSON CASH BEGGING IN NEW YORK

Flurry Caused by Rumors of Big Odds on Hughes.

(By The International News Service.) New York, Nov. 1.—A brief flurry was caused in the betting market today by the published report that a group of Hughes' backers were offering 10 to 6 on their candidate.

It was all a myth, however. When a Democratic politician with $50,000 to place on Wilson got into communication with the originators of the alleged offer, the 10 to 6 melted to 10 to 7, then to 10 to 8, then to 10 to 9. Even at the last-named figure the inquirer did not succeed in placing any money.

While the odds on the general result continued to favor Hughes at 10 to 9, and 10 to 8, there was a marked rise in the betting on Wilson's chance in the election. The odds on Hughes' victory were 10 to 9, and 10 to 8, and 10 to 7, and 10 to 6, and 10 to 5, and 10 to 4, and 10 to 3, and 10 to 2, and 10 to 1, and 10 to 0, and 10 to -1, and 10 to -2, and 10 to -3, and 10 to -4, and 10 to -5, and 10 to -6, and 10 to -7, and 10 to -8, and 10 to -9, and 10 to -10, and 10 to -11, and 10 to -12, and 10 to -13, and 10 to -14, and 10 to -15, and 10 to -16, and 10 to
